Agenda item 98 (a)
Review of the implementation of the recommendations and decisions adopted by the General Assembly at its tenth special session: report of the Conference on Disarmament

Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Viet Nam and Zimbabwe: draft resolution

Report of the Conference on Disarmament

The General Assembly,

Having considered the report of the Conference on Disarmament,[1]

Convinced that the Conference on Disarmament, as the sole multilateral disarmament negotiating forum of the international community, has the primary role in substantive negotiations on priority questions of disarmament,

Recognizing the address by the Secretary-General of the United Nations, as well as the addresses by Ministers for Foreign Affairs and other high-level officials in the Conference on Disarmament, as expressions of support for the endeavours of the Conference and its role as the sole multilateral disarmament negotiating forum,

Recognizing the need to conduct multilateral negotiations with the aim of reaching agreement on concrete issues,

Recalling in this respect that the Conference has a number of urgent and important issues for negotiation,

Considering that the present international climate should give additional impetus to multilateral negotiations with the aim of reaching concrete agreements,

Acknowledging with appreciation the support of the United Nations Security Council summit on nuclear disarmament and non-proliferation, held on 24 September 2009, to the work of the Conference on Disarmament,

Bearing in mind the decision of the Conference on Disarmament of 29 May 2009[2] to establish four working groups and three special coordinators, including one working group under agenda item 1 entitled "Cessation of the nuclear arms race and nuclear disarmament", which shall negotiate a treaty banning the production of fissile material for nuclear weapons or other nuclear devices, on the basis of the report of the Special Coordinator of 1995[3] and the mandate contained therein, without prescribing or precluding any outcome of discussions in the other three working groups, with a view to enabling future compromise and including the possibility of future negotiations under any agenda item, thus upholding the nature of the Conference on Disarmament,

Appreciating the continued cooperation among the Member States of the Conference as well as the six successive Presidents of the 2009 session,

Recognizing the importance of continuing consultations on the question of the expansion of the Conference membership,

Taking note of significant contributions made during the 2009 session to promote substantive discussions on issues on the agenda, as well as of discussions held on other issues that could also be relevant to the current international security environment,

Welcoming the enhanced engagement between civil society and the Conference at its 2009 session according to decisions taken by the Conference,

Stressing the urgent need for the Conference to commence its substantive work at the beginning of its 2010 session,

1. Reaffirms the role of the Conference on Disarmament as the sole multilateral disarmament negotiating forum of the international community;

2. Welcomes the consensus adoption of a programme of work for the 2009 session,[2] including the establishment of four working groups and three special coordinators;

3. Takes note of the active discussions held on the implementation of the programme of work at the 2009 session of the Conference, as duly reflected in the report and the records of the plenary meetings;

4. Welcomes the decision of the Conference to request the current President and the incoming President to conduct consultations during the intersessional period and, if possible, make recommendations taking into account all relevant proposals, past, present and future, including those submitted as documents of the Conference on Disarmament, views presented and discussions held, and to endeavour to keep the membership of the Conference informed, as appropriate, of their consultations;

5. Requests all States members of the Conference to cooperate with the current President and successive Presidents in their efforts to guide the Conference to the early commencement of substantive work, including negotiations, in its 2010 session;

6. Requests the Secretary-General to continue to ensure and strengthen, if needed, the provision to the Conference of all necessary administrative, substantive and conference support services;

7. Requests the Conference to submit a report on its work to the General Assembly at its sixty-fifth session;

8. Decides to include in the provisional agenda of its sixty-fifth session the item entitled "Report of the Conference on Disarmament".
